Washington Consumers' Checkbook
awards DocTalker
"CHECKBOOK's Top Rating for Quality" for their perfect evaluation scores.

DocTalker is the ONLY Family Medical Practice in the Checkbook with perfect scores.

The Washington Consumers' Checkbook

Fall 2015/Winter 2016 edition lists DocTalker Family Medicine as one of the few Primary Care Practices in the entire Washington, DC metropolitan area that received perfect scores of 100% in all areas of evaluation.

DocTalker wins
Checkbook's Top Rating for Quality

The categories that the medical practices were rated on were: Overall Quality;
Listening to/communicating with you; Spending enough time with you;
Seeking your input in making decisions;
Giving prevention/self-help advice;
Coordinating your care; and Seeing you quickly when you request.

In each of these categories, DocTalker received a perfect 100% score. They were very few practices that had perfect scores in all areas but DocTalker was the ONLY Family Medical practice that had perfect scores.

DocTalker would like to thank its patients for embracing this innovative way of practicing medicine - where the patient's care comes first.

It is encouraging to see DocTalker's successful patient care model stands out in the entire Washington, DC area.

Most importantly, we're so happy that our patients are happy.

Just a reminder that,
even though you can talk to DocTalker's medical team
anytime - 24/7, 365 days a year, DocTalker Family Medicine's office will be closed on Christmas Day and New Year's Day.
